

Worcester. Oct. 6. 1852.

Dear Miss Weston

I am afraid you will repent likewise the Amargara which Mr. Quincy has spe-cified for two years, in trying to obtain from me something satisfactory for the Liberty Bell. But my "poetry", as you easily call it, has all turned into prose for the last few years; a good exchange for all, I think. The enclosed verses are less inappropriate for your purpose than any others which I can find among the scattered scraps of the past.

If I send none to please you, I should like to add some prose to please myself, & I have a sermon, or part of one, on the text "Be ye my Brother's Keeper" which I should like to copy & send you if you are willing.

Have you applied to my friend W. H. Bartlett of Cambridge? I can also suggest another Contributor, Rev. David A. Wasson of Groveland, a young & - Orthodox Minister, & a dear friend of mine but known to few. Mr. Wasson is one of the noblest persons whom I know & of unlimited promise, & if you write to him in my name I think he wd. like to contribute.

Yours very respectfully

Miss A. Weston.

J. W. Higginson.
